

Back Against the Wall

Mission Statement:

Back Against the Wall is focused on creating legal aerosol art walls in the more underserved areas of Boston and promoting more sparks of creativity with opportunities for visual expression for all residents.

BATW will identify the first legal aerosol art wall in Dorchester specifically for the purpose of organized community events and a haven for residents to express themselves creatively. Engagement through the arts will lead to communal strength and awareness.